Greetings,

August 10, 2008 marked the debut of Fresh Foundations. As a high school sophomore, Camaley Jennings wanted to make a difference in her community and saw an unfilled need connected to stopping domestic violence. Beginning with identifying a solution to a common problem, then developing a concept, trademark, website and even organizing a community event, she embarked on a great mission. Now, in its fourth year, Fresh Foundations continues to grow.

Fresh Foundations rallies our community together to donate packages of new underwear, bras, socks, and undershirts to victims of domestic violence. These vital garments are donated to Sojourner Center's clothes closet and distributed throughout the year to the nearly 3,000 women and children they serve annually.

The 4th Annual Panty Party will be held at the Ritz-Carlton, Phoenix on Sunday, August 7, 2011 at 1:00 p.m. The afternoon of high tea will not only raise money and collect new undergarments, but continue the process of raising awareness of the problems caused by the brutality of domestic violence.

Our community is generous, there is no doubt. Over the past two years, we have collected and distributed more than 4,000 new undergarments and received just under $8,000, which was applied to the purchases throughout the years. However, there is a lot to be done.

Please help in the continual growth of Fresh Foundations. We are looking for individuals and organizations to provide a collection effort, a financial donation, in-kind support or even a referral to others who may help our cause. Please feel free to contact us, as we welcome a chance to meet with you soon.

With appreciation for your time and support,
